

PREHAB to REHAB – Optimising Treatment Pathways for Cancer Patients
 8th ERAS UK Conference - Radisson Blu Edwardian, Heathrow Airport - Friday 16th November, 2018

Time	Topic
08:30	Registration
09:15	Opening address, Professor Nader Francis
09:30	Keynote Lecture: Advances in anaesthetic and perioperative care for cancer patients, Professor Mike Grocott
10:00	Session 1: Pre-treatment Optimisation (Chairs: S Jack & M Grocott) i, Primary care perspective, Dr Sinead Clarke ii, What does the future look like for prehabilitation in Wales and Scotland? Dr David McDonald & Dr Rachael Barlow iii, Links between prehabilitation and the national cancer commissioning priorities, Fran Williams
11:15	Coffee & Trade Exhibition / Poster walk
11:45	Session 2: Ken Fearon prize session (Chairs: A Balfour, I Fecher-Jones, T Wainwright) 18004 Implementation of the Enhanced Recovery Laryngectomy pathway: a first step for the Head and Neck service, Gabriella Massa 18007 Implementation of a pre-operative physiotherapy service for patients undergoing oesophago-gastric surgery, Alice Humphries 18011 Effect of 4-week multimodal prehabilitation on fitness before pancreatic resection: an interventional pilot study, Jason George 18020 Analgesia for video assisted thoracoscopic surgery: a multimodal approach to accelerated recovery, Lail-u-mah Zaheer 18024 Could breath testing predict post-OP ileus and recovery following laparoscopic colorectal surgery? Nana Lemm
12:30	Lunch, trade exhibition & Poster walk
14:00	Session 3: Enhancing care during treatment and recovery (Chairs: R Barlow, N Francis, J Cave) Models for Prehabilitation for cancer patients a, Westfit project in Southampton, Professor Sandy Jack b, Update on prehab projects in Manchester, Neil Bibby c, Prehab the Aintree way, Claire Knowles d, Prehabilitation for Upper GI Cancer patients, Mr Krishna Moorthy
15:00	Tea & Trade Exhibition
15:30	Session 3 continues: Enhancing care during treatment and recovery (Chairs: R Barlow, N Francis, J Cave) i, Living with cancer, Patient panel ii, Painting the picture: the role of palliative chemotherapy in improving quality of life for those living with cancer, Georgina Wiley
16:30	Prizes awarded
16:45	Summing up and take home messages, June Davis
17:00	Close